

Kentish Regional Clinic Inc

Providing an Inclusive Practice for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Intersex and Queer/Questioning (LGBTIQ+) People

Facilitator:

Sharon Corvinus-Jones is the Executive Officer for Kentish Regional Clinic Inc. which delivers three programs; Community Response to Eliminating Suicide (CORES), Home Interaction Program for Parents and Youngsters (HIPPY) and LGBTIQ+ Professional Development.

Sharon has over 13 years' experience in LGBTIQ+ training and education. Over this time, she has won 3 awards for her work with LGBTIQ+ suicide prevention and social inclusion strategies. Throughout the training Sharon shares some of her own experiences struggling with sexuality and gender identity issues, while growing up in outback Queensland, and living as a young adult in rural Tasmania. Sharon outlines how her experiences could have been supported through LGBTIQ+ inclusive practice.

Topics covered within this training include:

- Knowledge to assist individuals and organisations to offer an inclusive and welcoming service for LGBTIQ+ people.
- LGBTIQ+ definitions and the use of pronouns.
- To provide a deeper understanding and confidence in working with LGBTIQ+ people.
- To explore the ways that homophobia and heterosexism can function to exclude LGBTIQ+ people.

- To illustrate the potentially negative effects of non-inclusive service provision and the positive effects of inclusive, sensitive services.
- To demonstrate that negative attitudes are not fixed and that people can change to become more inclusive.
- To promote and enhance critical reflection on your own personal (and potentially your professional) values.
- Preliminary research data from the 'Who I Am' study by Dr Julia Taylor, which is currently the largest study on bisexuality and pansexuality in the world.
- A screening of iNTERSExION which explores the complex issues related to the healthcare needs of Gender Diverse and Intersex people.
